

University Libraries Exhibitions Policy

The mission of the UM Libraries is to inspire intellectual discovery, research, creativity and lifelong learning, and exhibits within the walls of the Library should strive to meet those goals. The UM Libraries are committed to presenting high-quality exhibits that connects to the University of Mississippi's Mission and Vision, including the UM curriculum, faculty and student research, campus organizations and events, and current events. Exhibits must observe the tenets of the UM Creed while still preserving the university's commitment to academic freedom.
